

sample shells on the walls of picturesque castles

a novel approach to nature tourism exploring the main species of Andalusian land snails

we have expert guides in terrestrial malacology and environmental education

enjoy the amazing
landscapes

let us show you many of the terrestrial gastropods living in Southern Spain visit quaint towns from the South of Spain

experience the pleasure of knowing some of the most beautiful nature areas of Andalusia

explore the magnificent mediterranean forests

we guarantee that you will find snail populations and that you will know the habitats for the most taxa in our guided tours

MALACOLOGICAL GUIDED TOURS

for the first time in Spain

www.iberusbirdingnature.com

info@iberusmedioambiente.com

+0034 676127611

additional information on www.iberusbirdingnature.com

Jaen Province

Sierra de Jaén

Iberus g. gualtieranus (30-40mm)

Iberus g. intermedius (35-45mm)

Sierra de Jaén

Iberus g. alonensis (30-40mm)

Iberus g. angustatus (20-30mm)

Sierra Sur

Iberus g. ortizi cf. (25-30mm)
probably a new taxum

Iberus g. ortizi (20mm)

Sierra de Cazorla, Segura y las Villas

Iberus g. guiraoanus (20-30mm)

Granada Province

Loja

Iberus g. loxanus (20-30mm)

Cordoba Province

Cabra

Iberus g. ortizi (20mm)

Almeria Province

Sierra de Gádor (Enix)

Iberus g. gualtieranus (40-50mm)

Sierra de Gádor (Alhama)

Iberus g. ornatissimus (30mm)

Malaga Province

Torcal de Antequera

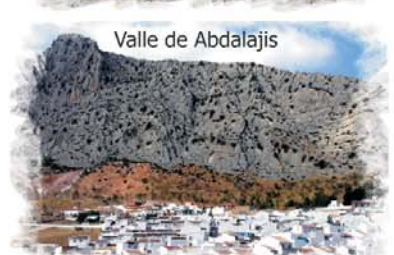

Iberus g. loxanus cf. (25mm)

Iberus g. gualtieroloxanus (25mm)

Valle de Abdalajis

Iberus g. cobosi (20-25mm)

Iberus g. marmoratus (20-25mm)

Punta Entinas-Sabinar

Iberus g. alonensis mariae (30mm)

Cuevas del Almanzora

Iberus g. campesinus (35-40mm)